Owen & Moore.

Clarksville, Tenn.

Constantly on hand a full supply of School Books, Miscellaneous Books, Sunday School Books, Writing Paper, Envelopes, Pens,

Pencils, Slates, Inks, Copy Books, Blank Books,

And everything pertaining to Office | Pure Wines and Liquors for Medi-

Pure Drugs.

Patent Medicines, Dye-Stuffs, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Teas, Spices, Perfumery, Toilet Articles,

Our Entire Stock is Fresh.

CALL AND EXAMINE.

L. GAUCHAT,

57 Franklin Street, Clarksville, Tenn.

Watches, Jewelry, Clocks and Silverware. Spectacles a Specialty

New, well selected and full stock. Will open new goods daily for the olidays. Prices the lowest Particular attention paid to repairing fine Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Fancy Goods in the most perfect manner. All work warranted. Nov. 30, 1878-1y*

Paints, Oils, Toilet Articles,

Stationery, School Books, Etc. (Stand formerly occupied by McCauley & Co.)

Clarksville, Tenn. I cordially invite my friends and former patrons to come and ex-

DORITY. OLDHAM. POINDEXTER.

Dority, Oldham&Co.,

Wholesale and Retail

GROCERS!

Clarksville, -

The customers of this house may rely on getting full value for their money. Our stock is entirely fresh, and was bought for CASH.

Orders by mail will receive the most careful attention.

Respectfully,

DORITY, OLDHAM & CO.

New Firm!

New Goods!

J. F. WARFIELD.

J. B. REYNOLDS.

WARFIELD & REYNOLDS. (OPPOSITE FOX & SMITH'S)

If you want bargains in Drugs and Stationery, Patent Medicines, Dye Stuff's, Perfumery, Toilei Articles, Spices,, Give us a call. We keep a full line of the above at The Peoples Drug Store!

DRUGS and PAINTS

Tobacco, Cigars and Liquors,

G. N. BYERS

BY WHOLESALE OR BETAIL.

You wish to trade where you can get the BEST GOODS for the LEAST MONEY. And we positively assert that V. L. WILLIAMS' is that place. Now when you are in need of Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Notions, etc., don't fail to try V. L. Williams, the shoe man, and prove what he says. A large stock of new Fall and Winter goods just received at his store, No. 25 Franklin, corner First street.

Glarksville

At Reduced Prices! AS LOW AS THE LOWEST!

The Clarksville Wagon Co. makes the very best Wagons known to the trade, uses very best Wagons known to the trade, uses none but thoroughly seasoned timber and other materials of the best quality. Prices Reduced as low as the inferior work of Reduced Barbara as low as the inferior work of Reduced Barbara as low as the inferior work of Reduced Barbara as low as the Inferior Work of Reduced Barbara as low as the inferior work of Reduced Barbara S. B. STEWART, distant factories. We will not be under- York. May I stay?"

But there was no sold. We offer A No. 1 Wagons, strog and substantial, at very low figures. All lay on her bed, with face hidden on Drugs and Medicines, our work is warranted. Call at Factory, or on Fox & Smith, Agents, and examine our Wagons before buying.

J. P. Y. WHITFIELD, President. B. W. MACRAE, Treasurer.

TRADE PALACE

Grand Fall and Winter Opening

DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, DRESS GOODS,

Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps,

BLANKETS, SHAWLS, SKIRTS, ELANNELS, ETC.,

Lieber's Trade Palace.

We have now in store the largest stock of Dry Goods, Lilly's position might have been clothing, Dress Goods, Blankets, Shaws, Skirts, Flannels, Boots, Shoes, etc., of any house in Clarksville, all bought before the late rise in goods, and will be sold extremely my wife right speedily. My little, darling girl why would she not low, according to present hard times.

A full stock of Flannels, 50 pairs of Blankets, 100 pieces of Jeans and Doeskins, Canton Flannels, 2,000 yards Brown

150 PIECES OF FALL PRINTS! 3,000 yards Dress Goods, with Trimmings to match, in Silks, Satins and Velvets.

The largest assortment and finest line of FANCY Hose tor Children, Misses and Ladies in the city.

A beautiful line of Black, Garnet, Plum, Seal Brown, Myrtle Green, and Navy Blue Cashmeres, for sale very low.

The Largest Line of Fall and Winter Clothing

In this market, which we will sell at 10 per cent. less than last year. 250 Men's suits, 100 Boys' and Youths', 300 Overcoats of all styles and prices. A very large assortment givings.

LADIES' CLOAKS, CHAPER THAN EVER.

Our entire stock of CARPETS, 15 per cent. cheaper than We invite you to come and price our goods, as we will give you the most goods and biggest bundles for the least We also will inform the public that we have made arrangements with an Eastern Buyer who will watch the said they two were engaged! Why, there's nothing in that but gossip, market closely, and send us New Goods Weekly, which we will sell 15 per cent. cheaper than any other house in he only laughed."

"He did n't contradict it, nurse; we will sell 15 per cent. cheaper than any other house in the city.

"How do you know? You got up any down will not be under-sold by anybody.

The Trade Palace is the Place to Buy Your Goods, And it behoves the rich man and the poor man, the farmer and the mechanic, the laborer and the rest of mankind as a dollar saved is a dollar saved

Franklin Bank,

FRANKLIN STEEET, CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

LILLY'S MISTAKE. BY CHARLOTTE M. STANLEY.

Lilly Vance-little Ella Raymond's pretty governess-stood in Villa, her soft brown eyes heavy with unshed tears, her white fingers nervously and almost unconsciously pulling a rose to pieces. She was not trying poor Gretchen's spell-

I in her eyes, but just 'the govern-ess;' and in his but just a poor and rather pretty girl, whom he em-ploys to educate his niece, and with whose too evident partiality for himself he condescends to amuse an idle hour, while all the time his serious wealthy and influential lawyer, was even then paraling over the even. I did not even dream. And I have reached him. believed him all that was good and noble! I have betrayed my love to him-oh, shame! shame!'

Her hands went up to her hot, "I will never willingly look upon his face again!" she resolved, im-petuously. "The sight of what he has made me suffer shall never gratify his heartless vanity. To-day he leaves home, to be absent several days, and when he returns I shall wonderingly. Please come down into the garden again, Miss Vane; Uncle Ed. wants to see you." Lilly raised a white face from the

"I cannot," she said, excitedly.
"My head aches so. Tell him he must please excuse me." Then, when the child had gone—"How Ransome's lover! Never will I see face again—oh, never, never, er!" Suddenly, there came the the window and looked out. "He is going! Going without a word, and I shall see him no more !" vard at the very moment that Edwin Raymond looked up. He saw the eager, lily-white face, the parted lips, and star-like, tearful eyes, and heart beat joyously at the happy certainty that love for him had called forth that tear at parting. He bowed and threw her a beaming look "My Rose!" he murmured low, he drove away. "Why would she not come to say good-by? As coy as a little bird she is, my sweet one. If I dared to miss this train, she should not have put me off so easily—such a fool as I was to let net's talk detain me so long, with that ridiculous seaside gossip of hers! Miss Ransome, indeed! No, no, sister Janet, no Miss Ransome ad I not been going away to-day. larling girl, why would she not ome down to say good-by ?" And thus happily musing, the unscious lover drove merrily tovards the station, never once dreaming of the unfortunate misconcepn that had arisen in Lilly's mind, and which threatened not only destruction to his own bright hopes, but heart-ache and bitter sorrow to the girl he so truly loved.

"And so you've give up your sit-uation and come home, said kind, motherly old Mrs. Brierly, gazing wistfully over the tops of her spectacles into Lilly's sad, fair young face. "And that just two days after the gentleman told you he wanted to marry you! Well, well, well, to be sure!"

Tou shall see her, and if you don't pronounce her charming, I'm no judge." He rang the bell. "John," said he to the servant who answered it, "request Miss Leslie to step down here for a few minutes before divine. And she sighed heavily and shook again until next day at luncheon,

"From Long Branch?" went on Mrs. Brierly, nodding gravely, with opened, and Lilly Vane stood on the air of a female judge. "Telling her as how the folks there coupled that her marriage would take place in the fall. I believe she expects a visit from your brother to-morrow. Miss Ransome would be married in the fall."

where the wedding in the papers; but Miss Janet's letter stated contrary, that the vote of both parties is a changeable quantity, and the fall."

Clark, the girl that came with meeker, slid over toward my husband—that man sneaking down better that one-third of the Republicans hind the Constable. Then I heard visit from your brother to-morrow.' Miss Ran "And, nurse, it is to Long Branch the fail."

But that night, alone in her room, she took from a little box three withered roses, and pressed them to her

"I threw them away in anger," she sobbed; "but took them back again. Oh, that I could take back the love they were the emblems of ! oh, that I could !"

there was no need of that; too surely and gone, and winter's turbulent slipping from the room.

"Let us walk in the garden a while, Ella," she had said; and oh, how rebelliously her heart had bounded as she caught Miss Janet Raymond's approving glance.

Winter in this miserable northern climate! What could have possessed the child to wish to remain here, when Europe and the South were offered for her choice, and she has, as yet, seen neither? Well, well, I Raymond's approving glance.

"So discreet and becoming in the have given in to Pet this time, but overness to retire!" her hurt pride in future Pet must just give in to uggested, bitterly. "And what am me, so far as the choice of winter residence is concerned, at least. I'll settle this business of my will, at Robinson Democrat yesterday who once; for I'm old—I'm old. Where is confident his party will carry the can Raymond be, I wonder? he should be here by this time."

affections and vows are given to this even then puzzling over the eccention is how to get them. We know bride-elect, of whose very existence tric letter which had that morning in advance what the Republicans "Knew my father well, and loved my mother in her girlhood's days; they will do. They cast in round has lived, and will die, a bachelor for her sake; never saw her after her marriage, but is resolute now that none but her son shall draw up his will for him; had meant to leave his will for him; had meant to leave the bulk of his property to me;'-why, he has never seen me!-'but has recently concluded that his adopted child (and niece) has a better ers are inclined to claims. To offset ted child (and niece) has a better claim.' Well, I should think so! 'The young lady is beautiful and amiable, and her heart is free.' Now, how can he know! Perhaps, as he have can he know! Perhaps, as he work in 1876 was 520,000, and the land the A well known voice and merry augh startled her.

"Come, Ella," she cried, nervousley, "it is time we were in the school which both might share his wealth.

> was my father's friend and my poor mother's faithful though rejected > together, sociably chatting. Ray-mond told Robert Leslie the story of his strangely disappointed love. This old man, so affectionately dis-posed towards himself, won all his

> A bitter blow it was when I came home and found her gone, without one word. I shall never love again," my little Pet. Well it was strange, with long distance and the lapse of I lost sight of her. Coming home last spring, tired and wealthy, and yearning to pass my last years in my own land, and with some one of my own blood near me I sought her long and earnestly, but in vain. She had died, I learned, and her husband also; and of their three children, only one had lived-a girl. This girl I could not trace. What had become of the tonely creature, orphaned and poor, none could tell. It weighed upon my mind, it tortured me night and day, this longey and skill were alike useless, advanced, and at last I quite despaired of ever finding my niece Poor and unfriended, she had died, I thought, and all my wealth had had no power to save or comfort her. It was a bitter thought. I was living at that time in the nouse of a very worthy woman; not a stylish lodging at all, but home-like and comfortable. I had not been feeling well for several days; its and a heavy cold had pulled me Here is a Democrat—John Kelly down, and my meals were sent up to my room. Usually the landlady waited on me herself, but one morning I was surprised by a very differ-ent sort of handmaid, a pretty, dark-eyed creature, quiet and sad. earnest eyes reminded me of my dead sister. I asked her name, her history. Will you believe it? Here was my long sought-for niece, who tending factions. The Barnburners, had thus come to me unconsciously learning to think of her as lost for-before dinner. Say I want to see Ed. Raymond had listened to the story with a singular interest. Even so had he sought vainly for a lost one, but alas! with no such fortuscarcely time for that when we were nate result. Even so might his I did not see him poor Lilly be wandering somewhere, friendless and sorrowful. He felt en Miss Janet received her let- an involuntary interest in the girl he was about to see, and turned almost eagerly towards the door as it

> Overwhelmed with surprise, he started back; but she, not observing the old sweet voice that had made

"Perhaps, my dear, it was best you came away. Anyway," with sudden acuteness, "what did you do with the roses?"

Liliy's dark eyes fell; she hesitatility's dark eyes fell; she hesitatility's

The summer and fall were over rassment of a witness by quietly

NEW YORK POLITICS.

The Plan Adopted by the Robinson Democrats to Carry the State -They are Confident of Success.

ALBANY, October 5 .- I met a is confident his party will carry the State. "Looked at from one point can do, and those who are wise may numbers 490,000 votes for Hayes in year 450,000 votes, which is a liberal estimate, and more than some ested in the canvass than they were in that of 1876. You will see that my estimate reduces Bobinson's vote 45,000 below what it was three But how, in the face of party divisions, are you going to work to develop this immense strength?" 'The divisions will help us. A revolt, if it does not get beyond control, always helps a party in power. You know how it was in The Republicans in this State who declared for Greeley appeared to constitute a balance of power. publicans were doubtless frightened. But this state of things did not last in the Grant party felt it incumbent on him to double work, while those who had entered the alliance was tried before Justice Knox on they did comparatively nothing, and assault and battery. The case The result was that the Liberals grew out of a disturbance which were beaten, and the divided Re- took place at a social party at Mr hey had ever been when they were appeared that the defendant, Meekof the election of 1874. When Gen. at Adam's house on Tuesday even-Dix was renominated perfect har- ing. He attended the party, taking while the other two-thirds were bolt, for it is utterly inexcusable. party, but who seeks, for the mere gratification of his personal spite, to make A. B. Cornell Governor of the State. In the old divisions be- her? tween the Hunkers and Barnburn- Witness-Yes, by mistake. (The ers there was a question of principal jury look at one another in astonan equality of strength in the conis appreciated by Democrats, and it | Miss Clark that I had hold of. stimulates them to the most earnest efforts. But spontaneous enthusishall have the best organization I ventured to remark: "I see by Mr. Tilden has contributed $500,000 the two parties combined have not it was your wife, would you have vass, they will do well. That will answered, with a grin, "No." be four times as much as they had in 1875, when they did considerable and the witness left the stand. He the music of Ed. Raymond's heart

"And, nurse, it is to Long Branch he has gone, and on the very day she looked for him."

"But not to me! Good heavens! what strange misapprehension is this? Not married to me, Lilly! I have known but one woman whom with them in an absent and puzzled manner.

"I'm afraid—" she murmured; "Perhaps, my dear, it was best you married last fall, and L as her law"But not to me! Good heavens! that one-third of the Republicans are approachable on the side of reason. In this bellef we shall make a thorough canvass in every town, village and hamlet of the State. We shall divide the entire body of voters into those who are known to be with us, those who are was married last fall, and L as her law"Perhaps, my dear, it was best you ingly.

"Forgive me," she whispered, weeping, as he clasped her to his breast. "I have been wrong, jealous, too hasty, but oh! I have suf- of them can speak for nine other band? men, thus bringing us into commusion, to explain the affair to him, complish all that we desire. found that the considerate old gentleman had spared them the embarrassment of a witness by quietly "But what plan have you adopted to overcome the Kelly detection?" and the court decided that she need not criminate herself. organization-nothing else. When A young lad named Armstrong, there was no need of that; too surely the sad refrain seemed echoing in her heart—"He loves me not!" Had not his sister, loves me not!" Had not his sister, scarcely half an hour ago, spoken of his approaching marriage with some rich and fashionable belle? And he had laughed gayly, and certainly not denied it. It was this that had driven Lilly so hastily from the luncheon table.

"Let us walk in the garden a while Even and outstretched hand outstretched hand outstretched it had outstretched hand.

"I understand it all," he said; "no explanations necessary. Mrs. Brierly told me about Lilly's jealous fancy, and my own inquiries distovered all the rest. You shall be married in the support of the regular ticket, they will support too. Nothing succeeds like success. The Kelly movement is made up mainly of brag. There is no solidity to it, and its surface that he will find less hair there than when he scratched it the last time.

will be worse off than the man without a country; he will be a leader without followers." "Do you mean to say that he will lose his hold on the Tammany Democrats of New York City?" "Yes; he is losing it every day, plans in advance, and thus give leading one of the reigning belies of your opponents a chance to adopt the place to form a set in a cotillion will be: For Robinson, 475,000; for Cornell, 450,000; for Kelly, 25,000; for Lewis, 15,000, and two or three housand for Mears, the Prohibition-

Now, my informant had certainly men on the 4th of November.

A CALAMITOUS KISS The Atrocious Conduct of a Married Yesterday afternoon John Meeker certainty of success. But when Mr. Meeker raised a row, which ended party. But Tilden was elected by young lady he brought there, and Attorney for the defense-Mr. who owes much to the Democratic in an unseemly way toward the Attorney-Please explain: Governor than the Hunkers, who tinguished I heard a noise as if > [The laughter in the room checked by Constable Metcalf.] Attorney—Did you kiss her? Witness (after some hesitation) don't think I did.

Attorney-Now, don't you know whether I did or not. Attorney-If you had been sure

Attorney-Why are you not sure made me suffer?"

He turned away, but her little hand was laid upon his arm entreat-

At this sally of the court the spec And then they remembered Mr. nication with five hundred thousand tators laughed uproariously, and it required several minutes to restore

A WOMAN'S TRICK. How She Cared Her Hughand of a

It used to be said in the early and our part of the campaign has times in Denver, when the free and not fairly begun yet. At heart very easy life of pioneer days was few of his present associates approve his course at Syracuse. They sometimes masqueraded in male atare bound to acquiesce in it while thre-especially at night-just to see their nominal relations with Tam- what it was that detained their husmany continue. What they are wants down town so late. One in waiting for is for Mr. Kelly to nominate his county ticket. Many of them still harbor the delusion that very fond of him. It seemed to her brough an understanding with Mr. | that so precious a possession should ornell that ticket can be elected. be guarded zealously, and she did When they discover that its chan- her best to keep him in view. But ces are hopeless—and they will find his incomings and outgoings were it out in due season—there will be a frequent. Like the Irishman's flea. from Tammany Hall which he was anywhere but the place at will surprise Mr. Kelly much more which he was expected to be found than his bolt at Syracuse surprised Nevertheless, she buckled bravely anybody. Meanwhile our organiza- down to her mission, and few were tion throughout the State will have his escapades that falled to com-"But is it wise to publish your dance-hall, and just as he was about

"That is precisely what we want. posed between them.
"I beg your pardon, support he is counting are not with the youth and girl were whirling a suggestive silence. Whatever the He had seen that face somewhere Republicans do in the way of or- and the voice was as familiar to ganization will be satisfactory to us. him as spring violets. "He looks We have the best of the argument, to be every inch a boy, and yet I'll and it is to our advantage decidedly swear its a woman," he muttered

> In a few moments the dance was "Well, yes," replied the citizen

> > "Well, let's go home," sugg attempted an audacious thing in zen in tones long drawn out, while deciding off-hand what would be a faint inkling of the youth's idendone by a million intelligent free-tity began to dawn upon hlm Then he stopped and peered wist-fully into the face wreathed with again inquired made the inquiry. It was evident that the citizen had begun to comprehend the situation. But he neaved a sigh as he replied cor-It was his last night out. The laces that knew him once knew him no more. Pleasure taken un-

It was hardly necessary to have der such espionage had ceased to be pleasing. The gentleman now is one of the pillars of society.

Awful Predictions from 1880 to 1887 will be one uni testified that while the frolic was in | be depopulated, Europe nearly as finally assaulted him, striking him tains are to toss their heads about stance every true Democrat is par-ticularly incensed against the Kelly the jury.) the eye (eye exhibited to through the choicest valleys; navigators will be lost by the thousands Adams, did you not deport yourself of the needle," and islands will appear and disappear in mid-ocean. All the beasts, birds and fishes will Attorney-Now, didn't you hug strife will destroy most of the few plague, and finally two years of fire -from 1885 to 1887-will rage with fury in every part of the globe. In 1887 the 'Star of Bethlehem will re-appear in Cassiapia's chair,' the im-mediate results being universal war > volved in civil war, unless a Napople that may manage to survive till ing it was my wife, and when the lamp was re-lighted I found it was ful."

The End of the World.

A lecture delivered at the Berlin

by Prof. Dubels-Raymond, bear al patronage in the past, and hoping a continuance of the same in the future.

Respectfully,

PHILIP LIEBER.

P. S.—Clothing will be made a specialty this fall, and will be sold 10 per cent. cheaper than any other house in the city will sell them.

We also have a large lot of Remnants in Calico and Worsted goods which we will sell for 50 cents on the dollar.

After a moment's hesitation she gave Ed. her little, trembing hand, which he took and held largerly. "Lattle Ella is well, I had proof, narse; don't blame use too much for what I am going to confer she want on the city will sell them.

We also have a large lot of Remnants in Calico and dollar.

After a moment's hesitation she gave Ed. her little, trembing hand, which he took and held largerly. "Lattle Ella is well, I had proof, narse; don't blame use too much for what I am going to confer she want on the same of the tity will sell them.

We also have a large lot of Remnants in Calico and will sell for 50 cents on the dollar.

We also have a large lot of Remnants in Calico and dollar.

We were the lands and wreck the house and held largerly. "Lattle Ella is well, I had proof, narse; don't blame use too much for what I am going to confer she want on; "and your wife?"

"My wife." He let go her hand in his surprise, "My wife." "We were hard an any other house in the little trembing hand, which he took and held largerly. "Lattle Ella is well, I had proof, narse; don't blame use too much for what I am going to confer she want on; "My wife." "We were than anxious to testifue we working all the time for recruits. He assumes that the Response who who are already enlisted, while we working all the time for recruits. He assumes that the Response who will sall the time for recruits. He assumes that the Response who when he asked me head with a little haughty movement, and flashed a glance of scornful representation. She was a grave of the landscape as the torrent of instance." My wife." He let go hen hand his surprise. "My wife." He let go hen shad had proof, narse; d

TOILET ARTICLES, SCHOOL BOOKS AND STATIONERY